We've been growing in

Devon since 1411!

The Tucker family started farming in Devon back in the 1400's, and the latest generation's roots are still very much in plants & gardening, as well as having a passion for fish. We are still a family business, and pride ourselves on offering you excellent customer service.
If there's anything we can help with, please let us know!

Waterside café

Welcome to our Café...

We hope you enjoy your visit today.

Please make your selection and order at the till.

Wherever possible everything is homemade from fresh, local Devon produce. We cook everything to order, so there may be a wait of 20-30 minutes during busy periods.

We thank you for your patience.

If you enjoy your visit to our café today, please leave us a review on Trip Advisor. However, if something isn't up to our normal high standards, please let a senior member of our café team know so they can put it right for you straight away.
